Are you running out of .info?

To check on when you'll need to renew look at the numbers on your mailing label - it should look something like this:

27 . 12 . 38 . 32.

The first number was your first issue, the second equals the total number of issues to your credit, the third number shows which issue will be your last issue, and the fourth number indicates the issue from which the label came. If the fourth number has <--- LAST next to it, that indicates that that issue is your last unless you renew. To make sure that you don't miss any issues, send in your renewal order an issue or two before you are due to expire.

.infoMANIA GAMETIPS

KILLING GAME SHOW (Psygnosis): You can see a map of each level and by hitting the Help key instead of the firebutton when you're told to Hit Fire.

NEVERMIND (Psygnosis): On the main screen, enter 328GTS. You should see a message saying "Cheat Now On Steve." The right mousebutton will then take you to the next level.

The passwords for the 26 levels are:

NITRO (Psygnosis): When you first start the game, enter your name as MAJ and you will be given plenty of fuel and extra money.

SPIDERMAN (Paragon): Hit the firebutton on the title screen and then choose Spidey Take 0 and hit the joystick button once more. Then hit 2 on the main keyboard - not the one on the keypad. If you've done everything correctly, hitting the Help key will restore your energy.

GHOSTBUSTERS 2 (Activision): Simultaneously hold down the ALT, Ctrl, S and U keys when the Activision logo appears, then press the firebutton, and you'll have unlimited energy. This also prevents the cable from snapping on the first level.

HUNT FOR RED OCTOBER (Datasoft): You can easily escape enemy ships by saving the game and then restoring. The ships surrounding you will be gone.

ROBOCOP 2 (Data East): Type SERIALINTERFACE when you're on the intro screen. F9 will then replenish energy and F10 skips to the next level.

INDIANA JONES & THE LAST CRUSADE - Arcade game (US Gold): Type in JEHOVA when the title screen comes up. The screen should flash to indicate that the cheat mode is active. Hit L to skip levels and 2 to move to different spots within a level.

MONTY PYTHON (Virgin Games UK): Type SEMPRIMI on the high-score table to restart on the same level where you got killed off.

RINGS OF ZON (PD/Shareware, available online) - To enable a cheat mode, press the left Amiga key when you're on the options screen. Once you're in the game, you can cheat using F9 and F10.

NIGHT SHIFT (Lucasfilm/EA): Enter EP on the brag board to activate cheat mode. Following are the level codes:

Level 2	CHERRY	BANANA	BANANA	LEMON

Level 13	PLUM	CHERRY	BANANA	PINEAPPLE

GENERIC SIERRA CHEAT: Some Sierra games (including the King's Quest series, though with the certain exception of King's Quest IV) have a built-in debugger. To access it, hit ALT-D and then hit Return twice. You can then type in TP and a number to transport to different locations. GET OBJECT plus a number will put the object in your inventory. You'll have to experiment to figure out what numbers to use.

THE UNTOUCHABLES (Ocean/EA): Type in SOUTHAMP-TONGAZETTE when the title screen appears. The screen should flash, and you can then hit F10 to skip levels. On levels 2, 3, and 6, hitting the Help key will take you to the second half of the level. You can also go directly to the different levels by pausing the game and typing in the following codes:

1 - Bride Rolls	3 - Kid Zapping
2 - Mac N Alley	4 - A Nit in Time

CHAOS STRIKES BACK (FTL): It is possible to make your party invincible. First, find a dragon, cast MON ZO GOR SAR at it, and pause the game. Then, while holding down the ALT key, type LORD LIBRASULUS SMITHES THEE DOWN. Resume the game and kill the dragon. If everything works correctly, the dragon should leave behind a firestaff and your party will be invincible. There are also some undocumented spells:

GOR IR ROS	- Detects invisible pits and false walls
GOR IR KU	- Detects monsters
GOR IR DAIN	- Detects magic
ZO IR NETA	- Anchors the map at the current location

SUPREME COURT DATA DECISION

While the Senate showed a complete lack of any sense at all during the Clarence Thomas confirmation hearings, the Supreme Court has managed to come up with a decision that does show some. In a recent ruling, the Court has decided that copyrights do not apply to lists such as some of those compiled on CDs. The case involved a local phone company which sued a publisher of a competing telephone directory. According to Commodore's Amiga Mail Market newsletter and other sources, mere lists and compilations of data cannot be copyrighted, with the Court stating that copyright "rewards originality, not effort." Gardner, Carton & Douglas, a Chicago/Washington DC law firm which has published a white paper on the ruling, interprets the decision to mean that a copyright applies only to any original material added to a database or an original arrangement of the data, such as a Top Ten list or something of that sort which implies some creative or original interpretation.

However, before you run out and duplicate the phone book on CD, you should be aware that while the copyright laws may not apply, there are laws against misappropriation. In a somewhat related decision, the Federal Courts have lifted the online computer services restrictions imposed on the so-called Baby Bell phone companies at the time of the Ma Bell monopoly breakup. At last! Online Yellow Pages!

FORMING UP

Creating standard forms is always a large, time-consuming pain, but if you're a PageStream user, you can get a four-disk collection of pre-fab forms and clipart from The Sterling Connection. Qwikforms contains standard layouts for brochures, newsletters, flyers, certificates, and so on, as well as clipart to put together to make your own. There are also boilerplate business and legal forms (make sure, though, that the legal forms are exactly what you need) for such things as invoices, estimates, budgets, rental agreements, etc. Price is $39.95. PO Box 4850, Berkeley, CA 94704. 510-655-2355. RS #209.

AMIGAVISION UPDATE

Commodore is shipping an upgraded version of AmigaVision. Numbered 1.70Z (the previous one was 1.53G), this one has better music handling for tempo, dynamics, and chords. There are also new video device drivers for the NEC PC-VCR, and the Panasonic OMDR and Pioneer 8000 laserdisc players. Probably the most significant addition, though, is the ability to chain together a series of applications via an icon control. That means you can put together your presentation (or whatever) in more manageable pieces and then put the whole thing together when you're ready to. Registered owners can upgrade by sending their original program disk and $35 to Commodore Business Machines, AmigaVision Upgrade, PO Box 18370, Memphis, TN 38181.
